The Honorable W. Averell Harriman
Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs
The Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Averell:

You may recall that last spring you addressed the members of our Midcareer Executive Development Course. In January 1965 the fifth such course will be conducted for another group of thirty selected Agency officers who some day will fill positions of senior responsibility. The success of the program to date has been largely a result of the assistance we have received from distinguished guest speakers.

I should like to invite you to deliver the final address of the next course at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, 19 February. As the focus of the latter third of the six-week program is upon current world trends and developments, I suggest a topic such as "Critical Problems for American Foreign Policy." A talk of about forty-five minutes' duration followed by a question and answer period would be most appreciated.

The Midcareer Executive Development Course is considered one of our major efforts. Therefore I wish to express my strongest personal hope that you will be able to assist us again.

Sincerely,
